

ENVOYS AGAIN UNDER FIRE SITUATION IS DESPERATE

Message From Conger Dated August 10 Says the Imperial Troops Have Again Attacked the Legations—Death Stares Them in the Face.

SAYS HE WILL NOT DESERT HIS POST

Relief Must Come Quickly or There is No Hope for One Foreigner in Pekin—Chinese Reported to be Marching in Tien Tsin.

Washington, Aug. 11.—[Special Telegram]—The following from Consul McWade, communicating an additional message from Conger:

"Canton, Aug. 11.—A dispatch from Conger dated Aug. 10, Pekin via Tsi Nan, answering my message, says that the legations are under siege by the imperial soldiers."

"The situation is desperate. The legations are being fired upon and a desperate attack was made last night. Hundreds were killed and wounded."

"The resistance is for life and honor. Relief must come in a few days or we are all lost."

"The loss in the legations so far are about 150 killed and about one hundred wounded. There is some sickness, nevertheless the general health continues good."

"He concludes: 'Whatever may be the outcome, we will hold on indefinitely.'"

The department believes that the date assigned to the dispatch by the consul refers to a file date when the message left Tsi Nan and doesn't fix the time when it left Pekin by courier.

Chaffee Wires From the Front.

The following is from Remy dated Chefoo, Aug. 10 and Taku, Aug. 7:

"Chaffee telegraphs from the front Aug. 6, 'Yang Tsun is occupied, casualties about sixty in my command. Two marines wounded. Many prostrated by heat and fatigue. Next move yet unknown.'"

Under Hot Rifle Fire.

The general commanding the English at the front telegraphs: "Marched from Pei Tsang nine miles toward Yang Tsun when we formed for an attack with the Americans on the right and the Russians on the left. After a rapid advance of three miles under a hot rifle shell fire our troops carried the first line of defense. Casualties about fifty killed, one death from sun stroke."

Confirmed by Admiral Jolles.

Paris, Aug. 11.—[Special Cablegram]—Admiral Jolles telegraphs from Taku that the Pekin legation has again been attacked.

DeGiers Ordered Home.

London, Aug. 11.—[Special Cablegram]—A St. Petersburg dispatch says the official Messenger publishes the announcement that the Russian Minister to Pekin, DeGiers, has been ordered to leave the city on the understanding that the Chinese government will guarantee his safety.

More Murder and Rapine.

Hong Kong, Aug. 10.—[Special Cablegram]—Reports from Swatow, Province of Kwang Tung, says that rioting and looting continue in that vicinity. The viceroy ignores the consul's protests. A number of missions now have been razed and many native Christians murdered. Revs. Foster and Groesbeck have telegraphed consul Wildman that their lives are in danger, and that the insurrection is spreading. Kwang Tung is in the extreme southern part of China.

CHINESE TROOPS ARE MOVING

Over 12,000 on the March Toward Pekin and Tien Tsin.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—It is reported that 12,000 Chinese troops are marching from the provinces of Hunan and Hu-Pai toward Pekin and Tientsin.

MARCHING ON TIENTSIN.

Chinese Army May Try to Retake That City.

New York, Aug. 11.—A dispatch to the Herald from Chefoo, Tuesday, via Tientsin and Shanghai, Thursday, says:

"According to rumors which have been spread, the Chinese are marching on Tientsin."

"Intelligence of an authentic character has been received that Pekin was quiet a week ago."

A dispatch to the Herald from Hongkong says:

"It is reported here that 3,000 black flags have already left Canton, going northward, and that more are following."

"Three thousand Indian troops are leaving Hongkong to re-enforce Vice-Admiral Seymour at Shanghai for the defense of the Yangtze region."

INSTRUCTED TO STAY.

Minister Conger Directed to Remain in Pekin.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—Minister Conger has been directed to remain in the British legation in Pekin until further instructions are sent him by this government. The diplomatic representatives of other governments, it is expected, will cable similar instructions. In this way the powers will checkmate the move of the imperial government to induce the ministers to leave Pekin on the ground that their governments have been asking why they do not start for the coast. Though Minister Conger, in his dispatch, asserts that the tsung-li-yamen states to the diplomatic body that the various foreign governments have repeatedly asked through the respective Chinese representatives that they depart from Pekin under suitable escort, the department is satisfied that Minister Wu made no such representations to his government, and that the object of the lie told to the diplomatic corps was to get them away from the fortified position they occupy, so they would be at the mercy of the boxers and imperial troops. While convinced of the duplicity of the Chinese government from previous dispatches received from Minister Conger and other sources, the dispatch last received is identical with those sent other governments, and shows conclusively the lengths to which the tsung-li-yamen has gone to induce the ministers to place themselves in the power of the Chinese. Warm commendation is given Minister Conger and his colleagues for their shrewdness in declining to accept the statements of the tsung-li-yamen, unsupported by cipher instructions from their respective governments. China will be held heavily to account for her attempts to lure the ministers to their death by misrepresentation, and it is understood that the dispatch just received will be the subject of another representation to the Chinese government when the demand made some days ago is answered.

LI NEGOTIATING FOR PEACE.

Report in London That an Edict Authorizes Him to Act.

London, Aug. 11.—An edict emanating from Pekin and authorizing Li Hung Chang to negotiate with the powers for peace has, it is reported, been received there. The correspondents at Yokohama again send the statement that a Russo-Japanese force is moving on Pekin from the north. The movements and number of this force are, it is further asserted, kept secret in order to prevent the facts from reaching Pekin. The French consul at Shanghai says 3,000 Annamite troops will arrive there next week for the protection of the French settlement.

Want McKimley's Good Offices.

Washington, Aug. 11.—[Special Telegram]—The Chinese minister this morning presented the state department an appeal from the viceroys of the southern provinces asking the good offices to dissuade the British authorities from landing troops at Shanghai, which is the cause of bad feeling and unrest among the Chinese.

King Victor Takes the Oath.

Rome, Aug. 11.—[Special Cablegram]—King Victor Emmanuel took the oath to the constitution in the senate and house today. The republicans and extreme radicals absented themselves.

SHE WILL MARRY A DUKE.

Mrs. Yznaga Corroborates Rumor Concerning Cincinnati Girl.

New York, Aug. 11.—A special to the Herald from Newport, R. I., says that Mrs. Antonio Yznaga, grandmother of the duke of Manchester, has written to friends in Newport that the duke is engaged to be married to Miss Helena Zimmerman, a wealthy young woman of Cincinnati, O. No information is given as to when the wedding will take place. This announcement follows a report that was circulated several weeks ago. At that time Miss Zimmerman was staying at Narragansett Pier and after the report of her engagement to the duke had been printed in several papers she authorized a positive denial in the Herald of the whole story. It was the fact of this denial that gave the news contained in Mrs. Yznaga's letter especial interest here.

BOY WHO HAD A SPLENDID NERVE

Run Over by a Train at Stevens Point, He Calls on a Passer to Bring His Severed Legs.

Stevens Point, Wis., Aug. 11.—Martin, the 16-year-old son of John Hantzinger, was knocked off the side of a moving Wisconsin Central freight car by a switch stand yesterday afternoon. One leg was cut off, but the boy managed to hold on in some way for 150 feet further, when the other leg was cut off. No one witnessed the accident.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE OFF FOR A YACHT CRUISE ON LAKES

They Will be the Guests of Ex-Congressman Stevenson for a Trip to Mackinac and the Soo—Vigorous Campaign Planned on His Return.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. LaFollette left last evening on the Northwestern train for Mackinac where they will become the guests of Hon. Isaac Stephenson and wife and join the party of friends of the latter from Marinette and Chicago who will make a cruise of the lakes to Mackinac, Sault Ste. Marie and along the Canadian shore on the Stephenson yacht.

They expect to be absent about a week on this trip and on their return Mr. and Mrs. LaFollette will join a party of friends from Eau Claire for a week's outing on one of the lakes in Northwestern Wisconsin.

AT LAST THERE IS SOME RELIEF

Mercury Dropped to Degrees Today at Chicago and Other Points.

MORE HEAT EXPECTED

Fear High Pressure in South-East Will Bring Another Hot Spell.

CAPPED CLIMAX YESTERDAY

Fair, warm tonight; Sunday thunderstorms.

Chicago, August 11.—[Special Telegram]—At last there is some relief from the terrific heat which has prevailed over this city and the rest of the country during the last seven days. At 11 o'clock today the mercury stood 81 degrees in the shade and there is a cool lake breeze blowing. Reports from the other sections of the country are to the same effect.

But the weather bureau does not hold out any prospects for tomorrow. It is

There were eighteen other prostrations reported.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—Nine deaths and fifteen prostrations resulted from the excessive heat here yesterday. The temperature was above 90 the greater part of the day and for one hour during the afternoon touched 96 degrees.

New York, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons died here yesterday from the excessive heat which has been torturing humanity in this locality for some days, and still continues, with little prospect of a let-up.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Instead of going lower the thermometer jumped a point yesterday, reaching 97 on the government building. Five deaths and six prostrations are directly attributable to the hot weather.

Philadelphia, Penn., Aug. 11.—The intense heat yesterday resulted in five deaths and twenty prostrations.

YELLOW FEVER IN HAVANA

Fifty-two Cases Under Treatment—Eighteen Are Americans.

Havana, Aug. 11.—Fifty-two cases of yellow fever are now under treatment in Havana. Of the victims, 18 are Americans. Thus far the mortality rate has been about 25 per cent. of those attacked.

SCANDAL AGITATES ST. LOUIS SOCIETY

Pretty Woman Separated From Her Husband Involves a Number of Prominent People.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 11.—The shooting of J. B. Kendall by Thrasher Hall in Lindell boulevard has uncovered a scandal at the Lindell Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Fannie Fleish Morse, wife of a salesman, the woman whose name has been coupled with that of Thrasher Hall. She is pretty, attractive and has been separated from her husband for some time.

In an affidavit today Kendall made a sworn statement connecting the name of L. B. Tebbette, a millionaire manufacturer, with the case. In part he says: "I surmised that the couple had gotten into some trouble but said nothing about it to my wife. I did not know or learn of the nature of the trouble until Wednesday, when I accidentally met Thomas P. Morse, the husband of Mrs. Fannie Fleish Morse on the street downtown. Mr. Morse stopped me and said: 'Jack, I am heartbroken. I want to tell you what I have learned and what I have seen with my own eyes. I could never believe it if I had not seen it.' I did not ask him to tell me what grieved him but he continued:

"On Sunday night I met Fanny, my wife, coming out of a most undesirable place at Fourteenth and Spruce streets with Thrasher Hall. I had detectives with me and had been watching for Lewis H. Tebbette, who I had been informed had been meeting with my wife in a room in the tower of the Lindell Avenue Methodist church, which had been fitted up for the janitor."

"Mr. Morse accused me of knowing the relationship that existed between his wife and Hall and upbraided me for not having informed him."

The tower room is in the steeple of the church, above the choir rehearsal room. Mr. Tebbette's friends are indignant that his name has been brought in to the affair. Mr. Tebbette considers it beneath his notice to discuss it.

Hall was released today on bond. He denied the story circulated about him and Mrs. Morse and threatens to make it hot for certain parties. Mrs. Morse is an attractive woman and lives in an elegantly appointed home on Laclede avenue.

BOTH OF ROBBERS KILLED BY POSSE

Men Who Looted a Union Pacific Train in Colorado Surrounded and Shot to Pieces.

Goodland, Kan., Aug. 11.—The two men who Sunday last robbed a Union Pacific train in Colorado and killed a passenger were surrounded by local officers this morning three miles east of here. In the battle which ensued one of the robbers was shot to pieces. The other was burned to death in the house on the Bartholomew ranch.

J. B. Riggs, owner of the Commercial hotel of Goodland, and George Cullins, members of the posse, were severely wounded, and another of the pursuing party, name unknown, was wounded slightly.

BRYAN WILL NOT REPEAT

Will Make No Extended Speech Making Tour This Campaign.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—William J. Bryan will make no extended speech-making tour of the country this campaign as he did four years ago. He will make a number of speeches, but they will all be in connection with some special occasion and part of a general swinging around the circle. That much was determined during the talks which Mr. Bryan had with the members of the executive committee of the democratic national committee today and that was all which was determined. Mr. Bryan will remain in Chicago until Monday.

RUHLIN WAS HURT FEAR HE MAY DIE

New York, August 11.—[Special Telegram]—Ruhlin's condition is serious. Doctors fear he may die.

Ed. Bingham of Chicago was in the city yesterday. Mr. Bingham has been attending the Broadhead gun club shoot in interests of the DuPont Powder Co.

IRRITATING DELAY OF THE BOER WAR

Great Britain Beginning to Lose Its Temper Over Slow Progress.

DANGER IN BOER PLOTS

President Kruger Says That He Has No Intention Whatever of Surrendering.

FIGHT TO THE BITTER END

London, Aug. 11.—[Special Cablegram]—For the moment the Chinese question is eclipsed in public interest by the report of the Pretoria conspiracy to murder the British officers and to kidnap Lord Roberts.

This is the talk of the clubs, where the correctness of the report is not doubted, though some cautious persons believe the plot may turn out to be a much smaller affair than it seems at first sight.

The revelations will, at any rate, strengthen the hands of those who have been loudly exclaiming for weeks past that Lord Roberts has been absurdly moderate in his methods and that there must be an end of misplaced leniency, which has only encouraged the Boers to prolong their resistance after all chance of successfully opposing the British advance in the field is at an end.

To Treat Boers As Bandits.

They prefer treating the Boers now in arms as mere bandits instead of soldiers, and they argue that the pacification of the country will be indefinitely postponed unless drastic examples are promptly made. They say that snipers, train wreckers and burghers found in arm after taking the oath of allegiance should be promptly shot and their property confiscated.

The fact is Englishmen are beginning to lose their temper over the irritating delay of the Boer war, and Lord Roberts if his prudence and sense of justice would permit, might adopt a rigorous policy of expression without being condemned by public opinion at home.

British Sees the Danger.

London, Aug. 11.—A special dispatch from Pretoria says the Boer plot to make a prisoner of Lord Roberts and shoot all the British officers possible, discovered Thursday, included the recapture of Pretoria and the shooting of Lord Roberts, to induce the burghers to rise en masse.

A number of suspected accomplices of the conspirators have been conducted across the border. The British authorities are awakening to the danger of allowing Boer sympathizers to remain in Pretoria, and the issue of passes to the burghers has been stopped.

Lord Roberts is All Right

Pretoria, Aug. 11.—It is said that Lord Methuen has arrested General De Wet's march.

All the Boers in the field credit a rumor circulated by their leaders, that Lord Roberts is dying. Roberts, however, is now in excellent health, is displaying wonderful energy and rides daily long distances.

Kruger Will Never Give In.

London, Aug. 4.—According to the Lorenzo Marques correspondent of the Daily Express, President Kruger, in the course of an interview last Wednesday said that the report that he intended to surrender was without foundation. He declared that the war would last a long time yet.

"A Boer bulletin," continues the correspondent, "announces a big battle between Lydenburg and Middleburg, in which the British had 500 killed and wounded. It also announces the recapture by the burghers of Heilbron, De Villiersdorp and Frankfort."

Boer reports by way of Lorenzo Marques lately have proved worthy of little credence.

POPULISTS TO NOTIFY BRYAN

Event Likely To Take Place at Topeka, Kan., Aug. 28

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—The populist advisory committee last night recommended that the populists notify Mr. Bryan of his nomination by the Sioux Falls convention at Topeka, Kas., on August 23. The notification by the free silver republicans will be at a later date and probably at St. Paul, Minn., being ex-Congressman Towne's state.

Fighting at Oran, Algeria

Oran, Algeria, August 11.—[Special Cablegram]—Two hundred and fifty were killed in fighting between the Djad and Mehoya tribes, because the latter killed a pro-French chief of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Spicer and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mason left this morning for Jefferson to spend Sunday.

FITZ KNOCKED OUT RUHLIN SIX ROUNDS OF FIGHTING

Akron Giant Makes a Good Showing but Tires As the Bout Progresses.

FIGHT HARD AND FAST

Lanky Australian Breaks Ground but Comes Back Smiling and More Merciless Than Ever

FATAL SHIFT DOES THE TRICK

BOB FITZSIMMONS.

New York, Aug. 11.—Fitzsimmons is back on his pedestal. He stepped out last night over the unconscious body of Gus Ruhlman, the man who hammered all the sense out of Sharkey. Old age came to the fore and triumphed over youth. Fitzsimmons, cold and calculating and merciless as a tiger, deliberately battered all but the life out of the Akron giant, and put him on the floor, dead to everything, in six short rounds.

For nearly six rounds the bald pate of Fitzsimmons shone like a lively ball of mercury in the ring. All the time the shining pate was tinged with crimson, but at no time was the light of courage missing from the visage it crowned. And when they picked Gus Ruhlman up from the resined floor and carried him off like a slaughtered member of the porcupine family, the yell of joy that went up put a grin on the homely, freckled face of Fitzsimmons that made it almost radiant.

Such a battle it was. On the one side the lean old warrior, hero of a hundred bloody trays, cool and calculating, full of resolve and confidence, despite the handicap of years.

On the other the bulky, albeit clean-limbed youth from Ohio, whose rise has been rapid, who had the advantage of youth and bulk.

The disproportion of the size of the men was marked. Ruhlman was nervous and gazed curiously at his bald-headed antagonist. Everything looked Ruhlman in the first round. Amid a stillness that was almost fearsome the young man smote the old man as he pleased, it seemed. Over the eye of the old man a place formed from which blood spurted. The old eye seemed wrong, the old head seemed to have lost its cunning. On every hand it was said: "He's too heavy for Fitz."

But in the second round the tide turned; the old eyes got right, and the cunning was again enthroned in the old brain. Every art known to the ring, every trick of hands and feet he exhibited. Slowly but surely the man with the handicap of years beat down the advantage of his opponent's youth, and when the end came it was a victory in which every force that a fighter should possess was brought into play.

Jim Corbett, dressed as if for a tennis party, advised Ruhlman. His advice went for naught. "Fitz" heard it as well and took advantage of it. In the beginning of the fight he landed his famous solar plexus, and the theatrical visage of Corbett ran the gamut of emotion from hope to despair. In the last four rounds Ruhlman bled like a fountain. He blew clots from his nostrils and spouted gore from a large green lump over his eye. When he went down the last time his face hit the floor first. He groveled in the rosin as though he liked it, as indeed perhaps he did after what had put him there.

Ruhlman could not have sworn whether he was in New York or Akron, Ohio, after the fight. Fitzsimmons walked across to shake hands with him and put out his freckled fist to a drooping, inert mountain of bloody flesh. It may be that Ruhlman can distinguish a Broadway car from a ferryboat about Sunday night.

No fighter ever lived who received such an ovation as the bald-headed old gladiator was accorded when his man went down. It was a just tribute to him, too.

Make a Hero of Fitzsimmons

The excitement toward the end of the fight reached a painful pitch. Two partisans in the boxes engaged in a fight that put the garden in a furore, but the contest in the ring was too interesting to allow attention to be diverted from it. To sum it all up, Ruhlman was beaten cruelly. Fitzsimmons was knocked down, but he was scarcely marked. At times the impact of the big body from Ohio tired him, but he always had a punch in reserve.

FAILED TO MAKE SCORE IN CHICAGO

Minneapolis Golf Club Beat 78 to Nothing by the Glen View Players.

ers—Rockford's, Friday.

The Minneapolis Golf club failed to score against the Glen View players in their match yesterday, the score at the finish being 78 to 0 in favor of Glen View. E. S. Woodworth and T. L. Corse were the only members of the visiting club that were not beaten from five to eleven strokes. Corse was the only Minneapolis player that was not down at the end of the first round. The Minneapolis players will have to brush up their playing if they expect to compete with the Wisconsin and Illinois clubs.

The Rockford team will meet the Janesville team on the Buckleton Links next Friday. The visiting team will be accompanied by a number of club members and several ladies. The Minneapolis club are making arrangements to entertain the visitors, and a lunch will be served at noon at the club house. Dr. Helm of Rockford was in the city yesterday making arrangements for their visit, and it is intended to give them a sort of informal reception at the club house.

Cleanest in America.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it cared little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There is therefore, no dust. These two things are of unusual interest to the traveler by the line, for the reason that on no other road in the United States is there stronger incentive to keep one's eyes upon the passing scene. It is said of this line truthfully that every mile is picturesque. It traverses the agricultural region of Western New York, the valley region of Central New York, the mountain region of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and every mile offers a view that is beautiful, interesting and entrancing. In point of comfort its passengers are particularly fortunate, for, in addition to there being no smoke or dust, the cars are roomy and scrupulously clean. Sleeping cars, parlor cars and dining cars offer all the conveniences and comforts of modern travel.

SPEEDWAY TRACK ON MORGAN FARM

Half Mile Race Track Will Be Laid Out—Fine Bed of Sand For Building Purposes.

Fast horses and a fast track on which they may set the pace are two things of which the Morgan farm will be able to boast. As soon as the proper man can be secured to superintend the work a half mile track will be laid out on the old Hanna farm in close proximity to the Morgan farm stables and about forty rods from the Clinton road east of the Wilcox farm buildings.

The steam road roller will be used in the work of getting the track into the finest possible condition and when completed it will be one of the best in the country.

Charles Gault has already spoken for the first season ticket on the track, and as soon as it is in condition the inhabitants along the road to the farm will probably have a daily view of "Old Hundred" going through his prettiest paces.

Some difficulty was experienced in getting sand for building purposes, and in the hope of finding what was needed Mr. Everett and an assistant began exploring for an article. Sure enough it was discovered in abundant quantities near the big stone crusher and a short distance from Turtle Creek. William Fitzgerald, who has been at work the past few days building a culvert of concrete, and who knows all about it, pronounced the sand the finest he had ever seen for building purposes.

Another important find was made last week in the way of a bed of excellent moulding clay. There is a large quantity of the article and it is quite valuable. With an unfailing supply of gravel for building the grout house and for use in the road construction in addition to the later finds the farm is doing well in supplying its own raw material. A coal mine is the next in order—Beloit News.

FAMINE STRICKEN INDIA

Six and a Half Million People
Receiving Relief.

FEARFUL RAVAGES OF CHOLERA.

In One City and Suburbs Five Per Cent of the Population Died in Twelve Days—Serious Loss of Cattle—Revenues Falling Off and Discontent Provoked by British.

While the monsoon that has broken with varying intensity over the famine districts in India raises hopes of better times during the next season the number of those receiving relief has risen to 6,500,000, and the total population affected by the scarcity of food is 95,000,000. With such an extension of the distress it is not surprising that the mortality from starvation keeps pace with it nor that the enfeebled peasants are falling victims to its accompaniment of cholera by tens of thousands, says the New York Sun. In the Bombay presidency when the cholera broke out the workers in the relief camps died in all directions, with the result that the arrangements of the authorities completely broke down, and thousands of people were scattered about the country emaciated and starving and in many cases already stricken with the disease from which they were vainly trying to escape. Hundreds died in the jungles and by the waysides. What the exact mortality has been from cholera will probably never be known. The ravages of the disease in Rajputana are described in a private letter from an Indian official in the famine service. He says:

"In Udaipur city and suburbs the recorded deaths amounted in 12 days to 5 per cent of the population. In the hilly tracts and in Dungarpur and Bauswara I made as careful an estimate as I could and found that about 10 per cent of the people must have been swept off. Here have we been struggling to keep life in these poor creatures, and in a fortnight the cholera carries off nearly as many people as the famine would have done had we left them alone. Of course our works were upset, and people bolted in all directions."

In southwestern Rajputana the mortality among the jungle tribes has been immense, so the reports say, and 40 per cent of the population in the Bhil country are already dead. In the country of which Kherwara is the center there has been appalling mortality among the people. The charity fund is hopelessly insufficient, and nothing the government can do now can make up the loss of cattle, the mainstay of the unfortunate Indian peasant cultivators. The officials dealing with this question admit that in the whole of the nonafflicted districts of India there are not available a one-hundredth part of the number of cattle which could be used on the land the moment the rains set in. At least 20 years must elapse before the numbers of cattle in central and western India in any way approach the total which obtained 12 months ago. And without the cattle there can be no plowing of the land or milk out of which to make the butter with which the ryot makes palatable the daily diet of rice or other grain. One correspondent does not see how the cultivator is to get to work again or how, monsoon or no monsoon, another famine is to be avoided next year unless the British government immediately advances at least $25,000,000.

There is now talk of considerable remissions of taxation; but, as one Indian writer says, it is no merit remitting a tax which the peasant cannot pay, and a mere suspension of taxes in the conditions in which the people will be for years to come, with liability to have them called up at any moment, is no relief in the long run. Endless discussion is going on both in the official and unofficial press of India as to the measures requisite to meet the increasing distress, but while discussion goes on the people are dying and the sources from which the government derives its revenues are being gradually dried up over an area comprising nearly one-third of the population.

To add to the bitterness of feeling against the British in India which is engendered by the sufferings of the people is the ever increasing frequency of assaults on natives by soldiers of the British army and civilians. In many cases the assaults are fatal in their consequences, but the perpetrators either go unpunished or escape with trifling fines, which leads a native paper to say that "surely the times are out of joint, and we are face to face with things which a generation ago were sheer impossibilities."

Marie Corelli's New Novel.
Marie Corelli, speaking of her forthcoming novel, "The Master Christian," to the New York World's London correspondent, says: "The conception is daring in the extreme, embracing the return to earth of the Christ Child, who, taking the form of a foundling, is rescued and protected by a saintly cardinal archbishop. The story opens at Rouen, and thence the scene shifts to Paris and later to Rome, where a most impressive interview takes place between the cardinal, the young stranger and the pope. The first edition will consist of 75,000 copies." Marie Corelli displays the most money making living of any English novelist. Her average income is estimated at $40,000.

Why Celestials.
The Chinese are tearing up the telegraph poles as they proceed. They have probably heard, says the Washington Post, that the Americans sometimes utilize them for other purposes than mere wire stretching.

NOT HER LOST SON.

New Development in the Lurie Kidnap-ing Case at Sharon, Pa.

Sharon, Pa., Aug. 11.—There is a new development in the Lurie kidnapping case in the shape of affidavits from New York proving that the child Mrs. Esther Lurie has in her possession is not her own, but the illegitimate son of Annie Smith of New York. Mrs. Lurie's child was kidnapped two years ago and last month she learned that a boy answering the description of her child was in the possession of a Polish family at Punxsutawney. She went to that place and identified the boy as her own and brought him back. Father Joseph N. Zuebycki of Punxsutawney, in whose charge the child had been placed, made an investigation, with the result that he learned that the boy is Joseph Smith, and not Morris Lurie. Letters, statements, and records of the case show that the boy was born in the Sloane Maternity hospital, New York, on May 28, 1896, and that he was turned over to the New York Foundling asylum and afterward sent to Father Zuebycki at Punxsutawney. Mrs. Lurie in the face of these facts admits that it is a case of mistaken identity, but refuses to give up the child.

FULL STOMACHS.

Their Value in Fitting Men to Decide Deliberately and Wisely.

James Creelman in a special report of the Republican national convention which he sent to the New York Journal characterized the speech of Senator Wolcott as "a speech based upon the theory that a man with a full stomach ceases to think about principles." The trouble with Mr. Creelman is that he fails to take into consideration the fact that one of the chief principles held by American civilization is that social and industrial conditions should be such that men shall have full stomachs.

Men with full stomachs are worth more than men with empty stomachs. They think better, they are better fitted and more ready to stand by their principles than they would be when suffering from the pangs of hunger. Therefore a fundamental question to be determined in deciding for or against a political party is whether or not the policy it advocates will enable the people of the United States to secure that with which to fill their stomachs and to supply themselves with the necessities of life.

This is why it is that the tariff issue on which our material condition hinges has been the most prominent issue before the American people since the beginning of the government. And we have made the glorious record in the world's history, which we have made because the American people have, by adhering almost constantly to the policy of protection, secured for themselves such industrial conditions that they have had all the material comforts of life, have thus been relieved from personal worry and discomfort and have therefore been in a position to give their best thought to the great problems before the country.

Because the American people have, thanks to the Dingley law, full stomachs this year, they will more wisely decide questions of national policy. But Mr. Creelman and the New York Journal may rest assured that they will not begin by voting for the policy of free trade, which will give them empty stomachs instead of full ones.

Zola on Dreyfus Case.

In conversation the other day with a Russian newspaper representative, Emile Zola said that, so far as he was concerned, the Dreyfus case was finished. He worked for the officer's liberation and that was obtained. At the same time the novelist said that he and his friends were still at the disposal of the liberated man if he wanted their help, but he did not see the necessity of the re-establishment of his innocence—that is to say, his rehabilitation.

Quorums in New York Council.

It is always difficult to secure a quorum in the New York city council, which as a matter of record, has never remained in session long enough to dispose of all the business on the calendar. At a recent meeting the necessary number of members failed to attend and the president was about to send the sergeant at arms for some absentees, when it was learned that the officer named was himself absent and that he had not attended a meeting for months.

THE BEST THEY KNOW.

YOU remember the old lady who rode for the first time on a railway train. There was a frightful collision, but when the rescuers reached her she was quite calm. She said she supposed they always stopped that way. The story well illustrates why so many women are satisfied to live without Ivory Soap. They have never tried it! Naturally enough, they think that annoying odors, sharp chemicals, and wasteful greasiness are common to all soaps.

ROCK PRAIRIE.

Rock River, Wis., Aug. 10.—Owing to the numerous recent thunder showers no threshing has been done here for the past week.

The report that Mr. Walter Pitcher has returned is utterly false.

Miss Christian is confined to the house with a badly sprained limb.

Owing to sickness it was impossible for Mr. David McLay and family to camp at Lake Delavan. James Menzies and family are camping there, however.

Misses Nettie and Mae Duncan are the guests of Mrs. Margaret Barlass. The Misses Duncan are from Chicago and have many warm friends on the prairie.

The tobacco crop seems unusually poor this year and we fear that the tobacco buyers will not find much to do this fall on the prairie.

Rev. S. G. Huey is spending his vacation at Devil's Lake, Wis. He will be gone for two months.

Joe Powers, John Airis and David McLay were among the lucky ones who finished threshing before the rain last week.

John Clark is spending the week with his sister Mae, at Lake Geneva.

Mrs. Robert Clark is confined to her home with a serious cough. We hope that she will soon recover.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the convention of the Y. P. C. U., which is to be held the twenty-eighth and ninth. About 200 delegates are expected.

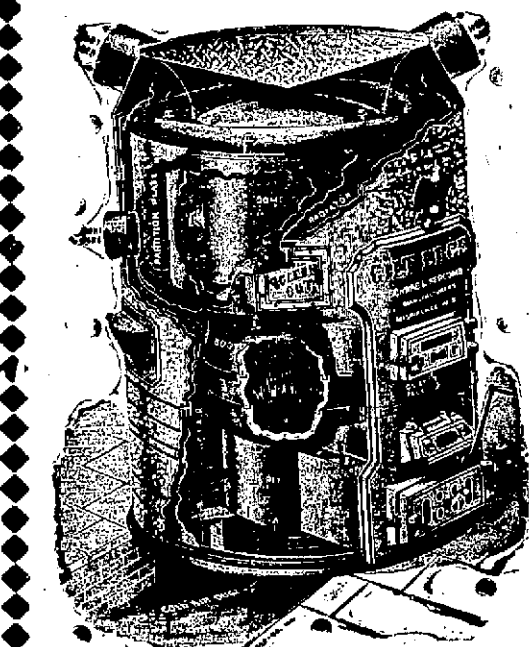

James Youngclaus is canvassing through North Dakota for The Pilgrims Progress. We hope that this will prove successful and also aid his rapidly failing health.

MR. LA FOLLETTE'S SPEECH.

Mr. La Follette's speech of acceptance was characteristic of the man—clean cut, decisive and admirable in every way. It should be widely read and its points carefully studied. In it he pledged his best endeavors to the party. All promises, he said, should be redeemed, and "more must not be promised than can be performed." On the subject of taxation he spoke sensibly, arguing that all should be treated fairly and alike.

"Each individual and every corporation transacting business within the state," he said "except such fraternal and other associations as are now expressly exempt from taxation by law—must pay neither more nor less than a justly proportionate share of the taxes. Selfish human nature in the individual and in the corporation may resist, but there will be no halt and no compromise. This question must be settled and rightly settled and upon a basis clearly shown to be just and equitable to all."

After speaking of the beneficial effects of the anti pass legislation, Mr. La Follette touched upon the trust question, saying that "combinations and trusts that destroy competition, restrain trade and create monopolies which prey upon the consumer, must be met with prohibitory penalties by both state and national legislation."

"No longer," he continued, "will there stand between the voter and the official, a political machine with a complicated system of caucuses and conventions, by the easy manipulation of which it thwarts the will of the voter and rules official conduct."

In speaking of the proposed primary election law, he said: "Inspired with confidence by the great reformation accomplished in our general elections through the Australian ballot, we advance the standards of reform and demand the same method in making nominations, together with the sovereign right that each citizen shall for himself exercise his choice by direct vote, without the intervention or interference of any political agency."

He spoke feelingly of the friends who stood by him so steadfastly, and of those who had formerly opposed him he said: "To the republicans who have stoutly and manfully opposed me in this and other contests, I tender that respect and admiration due to every worthy opponent. Good fellowship and good fighting go together. Standing by our convictions, let us put the differences that have divided us aside. As republicans we have now one common purpose—the triumph of our party in the political battle that is on, and the right result which it must make for good government after the battle is won."

In closing, he thanked the convention and the people for the honor conferred upon him.

The speech, of course, indicates Mr. La Follette's line of action, and its tone augurs well for the party. The radicalism that many expected is not in evidence, but, on the contrary, the tenor is decidedly conservative.

The alarmists who feared the abolishing of the tax commission, figured without their hosts. In speaking of the work of the last legislature, Chairman H. C. Adams, of the state convention, said:

"It increased the taxes of some of the corporations and then did the best thing it has done in a generation, established a tax commission for the purpose of a thorough investigation of the complicated question of taxation."

Janesville people have taken an especial interest in the tax commission for two reasons—its creation was a step forward, and the law that authorized it owes its existence to Senator John M. Whitehead.

The people of Wisconsin would be much pleased to have a Wisconsin man at the head of the Knights of Pythias of the United States, and in Ogden H. Fethers of this city, is found an ideal candidate for the position of Supreme Chancellor. Mr. Fethers claims will be advanced by the Badger members of the order, and that he will be chosen is the universal hope. Frank Barry of Milwaukee, is the Wisconsin candidate for the position of Commander of the Uniform Rank, and the Badger Knights will bend all their energies to secure the advancement of both Mr. Fethers and Mr. Barry.

Admiral Dewey says that Mr. McKinley's re-election means the end of the Philippine war.

"Whatever show of resistance to our authority there is at the present time in the Philippines, we will keep up until after our election in November. The insurrection is kept alive by the leaders, who hold out to the soldiers the hope of Bryan's election."

That is the way the admiral expressed it. Pretty candid statement, coming from an ex-democratic candidate for president, isn't it?

The people of the Capital City gave Mr. La Follette a rousing reception after his return to Madison after the nomination. The demonstration was non-partisan, the people taking part without any reference to their political preferences. Madison has not furnished a gubernatorial candidate for many years, and naturally takes pride in the fact that one of her distinguished citizens has been so honored.

The platform of the Wisconsin republicans is a clean cut, straight forward document, and lays down principles that should and will endure. The voters have already noticed this fact, thus causing the Bryanites, as usual, to "view with alarm," etc., etc.

Now let us have a good 5-cent cigar known as "Little Bob,"—Milwaukee Journal.

What? Didn't you get one? If not it was your fault.

Twenty-nine democratic papers in Minnesota have deserted Bryan—and the campaign is not yet begun.

Caucuses in Cities and Villages

MR. MOORE'S LARGE FAMILY.

He Has Supported Twenty Children on Earnings of $1.30 a Day.

Akron, O., Aug. 11.—For a father to support 20 children is something of a task under any conditions, but to do so on $1.30 a day, and even less, requires unusual characteristics. Such has been the problem with which Henry Moore of Monroe Falls, a few miles from here, has been confronted with, and which he has admirably solved. Death has cut the number down to 13 living children. Moore is 50 years old and his wife is 43. Both are Pennsylvanians, from Montour county. Moore came to Ohio first, but wooed his wife and won her on a visit to his old home. This was in 1876. They began housekeeping in Monroe Falls, where they still live. Their first child is now 23. No twins or triplets have been born to them. A child named Bernice, aged 3, was adopted. At present 13 of the children are at home. Norah was married two weeks ago, and Bertha is in Akron. Moore is exceedingly proud of his family, and nothing delights him more than to talk about them. He says: "Yes, I have found it a little close to bring up my family on $1.30 a day, and even $1.20, but I managed it. I go to Akron and buy my corn and flour by wholesale. It takes a snug sum to shoe my family. I usually buy my shoes in dozen lots. Things are getting easier. My boy gets nearly as much as I do, and two girls work here, too." The home of this large family consists of six rooms, a sitting room, a bedroom, and a kitchen downstairs, and three bedrooms on the second floor. Five large beds are in the house, besides many trundle-beds. Every one of the family is insured.

Heat Turns on Automatic Sprinkler. The heat was so terrific in New York a few days ago as to set off an automatic fire alarm in a soap factory. The contrivance is regulated to give an alarm and send down a shower of water when the temperature in the room reaches a certain number of degrees Fahrenheit. There was no fire, but the sun did the business, and the sprinklers nearly drowned out the soap factory before they could be stopped.

FETHERS MENTIONED FOR A HIGH HONOR

MAY BE MADE SUPREME CHAN-CELLOR OF THE K. P.

Janesville Man Stands High in Pythian Councils—Office is Worth $6,000 Per Year—Badger Delegation to Detroit Will Also Try to Land a Place for Frank Barry.

At Detroit week after next the Wisconsin Knights of Pythias will try to capture the best paid positions in the order. They say that they are certain to elect Attorney Ogden H. Fethers of Janesville supreme chancellor at a salary of $6,000 a year, and hope to elect Brig. Gen. Frank Barry of Milwaukee, commander of the uniform rank at $4,500 a year.

Mr. Fethers being now the vice supreme chancellor, is in line for promotion, and though both Chicago and San Francisco each has a candidate for the position of supreme chancellor, the Badger knights feel confident of being able to elect their man.

The present commander of the uniform rank is Gen. James R. Carnahan, of Indianapolis, and he is a candidate for re-election. He has already held the position eight years.

Fethers Feels Better

Ogden H. Fethers has been suffering from an attack of cholera morbus. Mr. Fethers is now very much better, and was able to breakfast this morning and expects to be able to get around to his office the first of next week. He expects to be in first class shape to attend the convention of the Knights of Pythias at Detroit, August 27.

The Oriental Lodge No. 22 of this city expect to send a delegation to the convention. It is not known yet who will attend, but it is certain that Janesville will be well represented and will do all in their power to further Mr. Fethers' election to the office of supreme chancellor.

To Compete For First Prize.

Wisconsin also expects to carry off the prize of $1,500 in cash for the best drilled company in the order. The John Barr Glenn company of Eau Claire will represent the state in this contest. This company won the same prize at Indianapolis two years ago.

It is expected that at least twelve Wisconsin cities will send companies to the encampment.

The Wisconsin brigade will be accompanied by the Military band of Eau Claire, this being in deference to the wishes of the crack company of that city. Heretofore the brigade has always been headed by the Cornet band of Monroe, accompanying John A. Hinesy division of that city. The order pays only the expenses of the musicians.

Over 400 Wisconsin Knights

Over 400 Wisconsin Knights will attend the encampment, nearly one-half of whom will be from Milwaukee. The route to Detroit has not yet been selected but it will probably be by rail. Col. Lisle said the Chicago & Northwestern road would probably be the line that would be chosen to carry the Milwaukee delegation East. The Knights will leave on a special train Monday morning, August 27, and return Sunday, September 2. The fare from Milwaukee will be $7.25.

ENDEAVOR SOCIETY LAWN SOCIAL

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church, gave a handsome lawn social at the home of Mrs. Edna Palmer, 115 Madison street, last night. The beautiful grounds were brilliantly lighted with Chinese lanterns, as was also the spacious porch. The young lady attendants, dressed in airy gowns, fitted back and forth, supplying the visitors with cream and cake, made a pretty picture. The society enjoyed a liberal patronage, and those present had a delightful time.

TEACHERS ARE HARD AT WORK

Progress of Rock County Normal Institute is Satisfactory

Notwithstanding the oppressively hot weather during the week the work at the High school has been pushed with vigor. Work begins at eight o'clock. This is indeed an early hour, but so eager are the teachers to get all that is possible to get out of the institute that the cases of tardiness are very few and the attendance for the week has been almost perfect.

There are no frivolous members and none who seem indifferent. All seem to think that the success of the institute depends upon the earnestness displayed by each member.

The conductors have the good will of the teachers and likewise the teachers of the conductors. In harmony lies strength.

Next week, with an increased membership, we shall hope for increased interest and for comparatively good results. Earnest work at the institute increases teaching power. Boards of education employ persons who attend such gatherings in preference to those who do not. Special stress is placed upon the up-to-date methods of teaching common branches, for these only are taught in the country schools and the cross roads school house is the poor boy's college.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Wisconsin Carriage Company for the erection of their factory to be located at the corner of Marion and Milwaukee streets.

Plans and specifications can be seen at their office at F. S. Baines tobacco warehouse. All bids will close by Thursday noon, August 16, 1900.

WORK IS LAID OUT BY THE COMMITTEE

REPUBLICANS PLAN THE COM-ING CAMPAIGN.

Assembly Convention Called as Are Also the Caucuses—W. W. Clarke Re-Elected Treasurer and Fred L. Clemons Made Assistant Secretary—Executive Committee is Appointed

At the meeting of the Republican County committee held at the municipal court room yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, W. W. Clark of Milton, was re-elected as treasurer, and Fred L. Clemons was chosen as assistant secretary. An executive committee was appointed by the chair—Chairman Nolan, Secretary Jackson and Treasurer Clarke being members, ex officio—as follows:

A. H. Sheldon, Janesville.
F. W. Gilman, Evansville.
F. W. Coon, Edgerton.
L. H. Parker, Beloit.
U. D. Waite, Rock.

The management of the coming campaign was delegated to the executive committee.

The assembly district conventions to nominate candidates for the members of the assembly were called as follows:

First District—At the common council chamber, August 22, at 2 o'clock.

Second District—At the circuit court room, August 23 at 2 o'clock p. m.

Third District—At G. A. R. hall, Beloit, August 22, at 2 o'clock p. m.

The caucuses in the cities and villages to elect delegates to these conventions and also to the senatorial convention at Milton Junction on Sept. 5, were called for August 21, from 7 to 8 o'clock p. m.

SHIRT WAIST MAN STRIKES JANESVILLE

HOWARD R. RUGER INAUGURATES NEW FASHION HERE.

He is Always Up to Date in the Matter of Dress—His Shirt Waist is a Thing of Beauty—How Some Bower City People Look Upon This Innovation.

The male shirt waist fad or fashion has at last reached Janesville. It remained for Howard R. Ruger to be the first one to bring the fashion before the Janesville public.

Mr. Ruger is a progressive young man and tries to keep up with all the latest styles in dress, and is usually the first one to introduce any novelty in the dress line to Janesville's smart dressers.

Ruger's shirt waists is a thing of beauty and would be a joy forever were it not for latitudes. The fashion, however, strikes Janesville's rather late in the season.

Men's furnishees are entirely unprepared to furnish anything in the shirt waist line. By next summer they will be prepared to furnish anything in this line required by the faddy dresser.

It is now feared if the shirt waist is adopted that other articles of feminine apparel will soon make their appearance in the male wardrobe, the most necessary being stays. This, however, is flouted by the conservative dresser.

A number of the merchants have had numerous inquiries for male shirt waists in the last few days. They all say it is too late to put in a stock this season, but they will be prepared to furnish all kinds next season.

Manager Johnson of the Hotel Myers said today: "I am opposed to shirt waists and would not allow them in my dining room. I can see no difference between the shirt waist and an ordinary shirt. If I permit a man in a shirt waist to use my dining room without wearing a coat. I see no reason why any man with a clean shirt with no coat and vest on cannot demand the same rights as the shirt waist man."

J. F. Sweeney, proprietor of the Grand Hotel, was equally outspoken in regard to the new fashion and said, he would refuse to serve any shirt waist guests in his dining room. "The public demand that some rule be established and it is not too much trouble for a man to put on his coat for the short time he spends in eating," he said.

Nevertheless the dealers believe the new fashion has come to stay and that it will meet with much favor among stylish dressers. The waists will be of silk or fine shirt goods, with pleats down the front and yokes in the back. The front will be full and puffy and the back more close fitting than the ordinary baggy shirt. Unlike the ordinary shirt, cuffs will be attached while white or other colored collar will be worn as at present.

The trousers will overlap the waist on the outside and be held in place by a fancy leather belt.

In the opinion of a prominent attorney, proprietors of cafes, restaurants, hotels and other public places have no right to eject male patrons clad in neat and becoming shirt waists. This will be received with much relief by timid young men who are anxious to keep pace with fashion, yet who are afraid to don a shirt waist because of fear of being forcibly ejected from a public resort.

Proprietors of public places have the right to make all reasonable rules and regulations for their establishments, but they would not be upheld by the courts, if they ejected a man because his attire was not of the color or style worn by the majority of males. As long as a person is neatly, cleanly and decently apparelled, he would have a perfect right to enter any public place. The question as to what constitutes a neat, clean and decent apparel would be one for the court to decide.

SCOTCH PICNIC HAS BEEN ABANDONED

Low Stage of Water in the River the Cause—Dance in the Evening Still on Program.

The Rock county Caledonian society have been obliged on account of the low stage of water in the river to abandon their picnic which was to have been held at Crystal Springs, August 17.

It is with great regret that the management makes this announcement. The low stage of water in the river caused by opening the gates of the chute in order that the dam may be repaired, makes it necessary.

It would be exceedingly foolish to go on and advertise the picnic and spend money for something they could not carry out.

This is the first time in fifteen years that the Caledonians have not held a picnic. It will be missed by the Scotch as well as other nationalities who look upon the picnic as one of the events of the season.

The dance to be given by the society will take place as advertised in the evening at the armory and all are cordially invited to attend.

M'KINLEY IS BUSY AT CANTON HOME

Although on His Vacation the President Is Working as Hard as He Does in the White House.

Canton, Ohio, August 11—Evidence of the increasing volume of work at the McKinley home was furnished this morning by an extension of the long distance telephone connections with the house, and the arrival of an additional stenographer from the White House.

The work begins early in the morning and continues far into the night in the working room of Secretary to the President Cortelyou, and President McKinley himself puts in about the same hours. He personally considers all the Chinese news, and gives personal attention to all affairs of state referred here, except the matters of the most common routine.

The consequence is that he has less time for recreation or social intercourse, and cannot receive visitors with the promptness that characterized the earlier days of his vacation. In fact, his present life has little of the vacation flavor about it. He is keeping up well, however, and has experienced much benefit from his sojourn here.

TO PLACE BLAME WHERE IT BELONGS

CORONER'S JURY WILL INVESTIGATE RAILWAY WRECK.

Adjourned Until Next Tuesday on Account of the Absence of Important Witnesses—The Funerals of the Victims Will Take Place Tomorrow Morning.

The coroner's jury, consisting of O. F. Nowlan, J. L. Bear, J. H. Watson, L. A. Hemmes, W. J. Rothermel and H. E. Cary, called for the purpose of holding an inquest over the remains of E. P. Schlater and Gus Abendroth, who were killed in the railroad wreck yesterday afternoon, met in Justice Earle's court this morning and adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The absence of witnesses made the adjournment necessary.

The cause of the accident seems to be somewhat of a mystery, a number of different stories as to the cause being told by parties connected with the two train crews, and also by people that were near the scene and on the ground immediately afterwards. The true cause will no doubt be developed at the coroners inquest and the blame placed where it belongs.

The battered engine was taken to the city yards and sidetracked near the St. Paul tool house, just beyond the passenger station, where it stands a mute witness of the terrible force the two trains came together with.

Curious crowds of sight seers gathered around the dismantled engine and looked with awe upon the twisted and broken mass of iron that so lately crushed the life out of two brave men.

A special caboose was sent to Mineral Point for Mrs. Schlater and the children who arrived in the city about seven o'clock last night and were immediately taken to their home. Mrs. Schlater is a frail little woman and was prostrated by the shock.

The funeral of E. P. Schlater will be held from his home 112 Madison street Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and from St. Mary's church at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. W. A. Goebel will officiate. The interment will be at Mount Olivet cemetery.

The funeral of the late August Abendroth will be held from his home at 109 Terrace street, Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and from St. John's Lutheran church at 10 o'clock. Rev. P. F. Werth will officiate.

COMISKEY DRAFTS

MIKE BIRMINGHAM

Another one of Janesville's young men is making a name for himself in base ball circles. Michael Birmingham of this city who last year made an enviable record as a ball player with the Courtland, N. Y., team and who this year was with the Grand Rapids, Michigan team until it disbanded, has been hired by Captain Comiskey to play first base in the Chicago White Stockings of the American League. Mr. Birmingham is a first class ball player and his numerous friends look for him to sustain his record while playing with the Chicago club.

HER DESCENDANTS ARE 102.

Death of Mrs. Henrietta Brand Who Knew Eight Generations.

New York, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Henrietta W. Brand, who knew personally eight generations of her own family, died yesterday at her residence in Brooklyn of water on the brain, resulting from old age. She was born Dec. 31, 1808, in New Haven, Conn., and was the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Horace Holley. She remembered well her great-grandmother. She had thirteen children, nine of whom are alive; thirty-eight grandchildren, fifty great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Her health began to fail about three years ago, but until three months ago she attended to all her personal affairs and household duties, as she was in full possession of her faculties. Her husband died in 1845. He brought the first bagging machinery to this country from Scotland and helped to revolutionize that industry.

Fleet's Big Damage Suit.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 11.—Rev. Ernest D'Aquila, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, has begun suit for $30,000 against the North Jersey Street railway, for injuries sustained through being knocked down by one of the company's cars a short time ago. At the time of the accident the Italians were celebrating the feast of Mount Carmel with a parade. A motorman attempted to run a car through the line, and Father D'Aquila protested. The motorman, it is alleged, paid no attention to him, ran the car straight ahead, and knocked the priest down. While some of the paraders dragged the prostrate priest from in front of the car, others boarded it, and a fierce fight ensued, during which the motorman was badly beaten, and would probably have been killed had not the police reserves responded promptly.

Lutherans Name Officers.

La Porte, Ind., Aug. 11.—The time of the Lutheran conference was largely taken up in hearing the representatives of the important committees and the election and installation of officers. The officers are as follows: President, the Rev. J. H. Niemann, Cleveland, O.; vice-president, the Rev. J. Schumm, Lafayette, Ind.; secretary, the Rev. R. B. Biederman, Kendallville, Ind.; treasurer, A. C. Kampe, Fort Wayne, Ind. The congregations at Fort Wayne and Kappa, this state, and Collinswood and South Brooklyn, O., were admitted to conference membership. The conference voted to adopt the English language in the institution controlled by the church at Norris, Mich.

Friction Over Hoyt's Case.

New York, Aug. 11.—There is a possibility that the plans originally made by the friends of Charles H. Hoyt, and by the attorneys of Frank McKee of the firm of Hoyt & McKee, for the care of the playwright, may not be carried out. It is said in theatrical circles that if there is not friction at present there is likely to be a hitch between the two sides. The friends of Hoyt are not willing that the commissioner appointed by the Supreme court of this state should be the only one to pass on the mental condition of the playwright.

Horseman Divorced.

New York, Aug. 11.—William A. Engeman, chief stockholder of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, has been divorced by his wife at Cheyenne, Wyo. Mrs. Engeman's suit was based on desertion and was not defended. Mrs. Engeman was the only child of A. H. Battersby, for years treasurer of the Brighton Beach Racing Association.

Four Distilleries on Fire.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 11.—Four of Peoria's big distilleries took fire and the dryhouse of the Manhattan was totally destroyed, with a loss of about $25,000. In the afternoon there was a slight blaze at the Barker distillery and another at the Atlas, and while the fire was raging at the Manhattan a blaze was discovered at the Great Western, which was soon extinguished.

THE TWO HEADED CALF.

Democratic Platform Provides Two Paramount Issues.

"We regard it (imperialism) as the paramount issue." So says the Kansas City platform, and so say those Democrats who are afraid of 16 to 1. In the same platform the Democrats "re-affirm and endorse the principles of the Democratic national platform adopted at Chicago in 1896," and they "reiterate the demand made in that platform for an American financial system."

The demand made in the platform of 1896, which is thus incorporated into the platform of 1900, begins with these words:

"Recognizing that the money question is paramount to all others at this time."

Put into the platform of 1900 the phrase "at this time" means 1896 and can mean nothing else.

It is no great matter what the framers of a platform say as to the importance of an issue if their assertion is not accepted by the people, the makers and the judges of issues, but the fact remains that the Kansas City platform declares that silver is the paramount issue. It had to do that to satisfy Bryan and the Bryanites. The assertion that imperialism is the paramount issue is meant for the weak-kneed brethren and the few but fierce anti-imperialists outside of the Bryan fold.

The inclusion of two "paramount" issues in the same platform is worthy of the silver mathematicians.—New York Sun.

HE SHOULD SPEAK.

It is Up to Mr. Cleveland to Be a Little More Explicit.

Mr. Cleveland has been heard from in the shape of an expression of regret that the platform adopted at Kansas City failed to harmonize the "discordant sentiment" in the Democratic party. Mr. Cleveland should be heard from again.

He should make haste to do something more than merely manifest his grief and his surprise that the Kansas City convention should have implicitly obeyed the orders it received from the imperialist who sat on his porch at Lincoln and dictated the precise language in which the platform should declare the attitude of the Democracy on the money question.

The admirers of Mr. Cleveland have a right to expect something explicit as to "the duty of Democrats." They would like to know, we feel sure, whether the great man prefers Bryan and Bryanism to McKinley and McKinleyism; whether his hatred of protection outweighs his hatred of 16 to 1. Populism and the balance of the revolutionary hodgepodge which goes to make up the Bryan platform. It is up to Mr. Cleveland to speak again.

Consent of the Governed.

The Mobile Daily Register says of our territorial inhabitants:

"If we can tax these people without asking their consent, what is to stand in the way of congress treating a state in the same way?"

True, we have treated all our territories in this manner since Thomas Jefferson inaugurated the method, and Alaska affords the most conspicuous of modern examples. Nevertheless, seeing the Register evidently extracts lots of pleasure in insulting the policy of our Revolutionary fathers, as a robust husband remarked when his little wife beat him with her tiny fists, "It affords her a good deal of an amusement, and it doesn't hurt me."

Weather Excuse Saved One.

Two well-known and well-to-do men of Washington city were arraigned in a police court there the other day for swearing. Both of them were overheard by policemen on the streets. One confessed he was a frequent sinner and was fined $5. The other blamed it on the weather and was released on his personal bond.

Shipping Earnings of Nations.

Mulhall, the statistician, says that during the year 1897, British shipping earned $279,000,000, over half of the total earned by the world's shipping. Germany came next with $41,500,000; Norway, $25,000,000; France, $24,000,000; Canada, $17,000,000; the United States, $16,000,000. The total earnings of the world's shipping were $509,000,000, of which $467,000,000 is credited to European countries.

Pimples

Are more than a disfigurement of the skin; they are a handicap to a young man, alike in love and business. The pimply face looks dissipated and both merchant and maiden look askance at the unfortunate fellow whose face is his misfortune. An almost certain cure for pimples and similar disfiguring eruptions is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood of the corrupting cause of ordinary eruptive diseases, cleanses the skin and builds up the body with sound wholesome flesh. "Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I am well pleased with your medicine," writes John A. Calloway, Esq., 215 26th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1891 I was working at night and I broke out in pimples all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two of Doctor Pierce's Patches, and I do believe that I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines but received no benefit. Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and now I weigh one hundred and forty-five. Please accept my thanks. I am so glad I found the right kind of medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

O. P. BRUNSON

FADS

SUMMER GIRL...

AS NOTED BY

MAUD B. REBINSON.

Summer is beyond doubt the season for fads. The pretty girl must busy herself with something, and when the all desired man is scarce—and he sometimes is at summer resorts—she has at least one or more hobbies to fall back upon. Even when men are adoring and plentiful a fad is a good thing, the girls say, because it brings out your individuality.

What could be more modest and unassuming, for instance, than the new heart pins used as fichu clasps? It is no longer the fashion to wear your heart on your sleeve. You wear it on your breast, a sizable silver or gold affair, very plain to see. On its face initials are engraved, jeweled if you are rich. Your own? I wonder at you! There would be no daring in that, and the summer girl, above all, is daring. No, the initials are those of the favored man.

R.

HER HEART IN PLAIN SIGHT.

It has been suggested, and probably by some crusty old bachelor, that these initials should be engraved on slides for the benefit of the summer girl, so that every time she forms a fresh engagement she may not be put to the expense of a new pin. Some other man has suggested that they be made of crystal and the initials painted on the surface, but that would never do, because the summer girl's heart is anything but transparent, and she wouldn't want it even to be represented as such.

But really, when you come down to it, does the modern girl care so much for men? There is another class of beings which receives much more of her attention.

"For whom are you embroidering that stunning handkerchief?" demanded the Harvard sophomore jealously. He had been vainly begging her to make him a sofa cushion.

The object of his adoration shifted her position so as to bring into notice the buckle on her patent leather slipper; then she smiled sweetly at him.

"For my dog," she murmured. "Great Scott!" gasped the man and was unable to proceed further.

Yet this is, alas, too true! And, as the fashion comes from Paris, it goes without saying it is the correct thing. Behold the dog risen to the dignity of a laundry bill, for, of course, he must have a fresh handkerchief every day. And what for? Why, to wipe his eyes when they become "teary" with cold or excitement and to dust off his paws before he enters his drawing room, for, unfortunately, the civilized dog still goes barefoot. Shall it be long, though, before your dog is requested to leave his shoes at the door, as you are your umbrella?

However, to return to the handkerchiefs, they are worn in a little pocket

R.

SHE LIKES BUGS AND SNAKES—OF JEWELS. In the left hand side of the blanket, where, I regret to say, they give the dog quite a lopsided effect. A plain square of linen would never do, of course, so Fido or Fifi's name appears in one corner most elaborately embroidered. One Parisian countess has actually had her pet dog's handkerchief embroidered with her coat of arms.

Speaking of initials, the girl who is afraid of getting lost will rejoice at the prospect of a new label she can fasten to herself. In the old times there were the "Marjorie," "Susie" and "Bessie" pins which made one ache to call the girl by her first name; then followed the dog collar belt, with its silver plate, worn oftentimes crooked in the back, said plate informing the world at large of the full name of the wearer and, I was going to say, the number of the license.

Now the new thing is a little more modest; it consists simply of the initial of your last name, but it can be made very large indeed, as it forms the entire buckle of your belt. Consider the luxury of wearing an "S" almost as large as those used in the headlines of the yellow journals—and of seeing the face of the man opposite you in the car wrinkle in agony as he tries to guess whether your name is Shupkins or Simpson.

Speaking of ornaments, the up to date girl this summer will be covered with snakes, grasshoppers and beetles, not in reality, but all the fashionable jewelry runs to crawling, creeping things. A friend of mine says he saw a girl with a cut steel snake coiled at the base of her collar, a plump gold grasshopper perched on the end of her hatpin and a jeweled lizard chafed among the laces on her breast. And yet a woman screams when a cricket steps on the edge of her gown! He could not help wondering what would happen if all three things came to life.

It is the fad now to have a photograph of only part of your face, the eyes being preferred. In fact, books are being sold to contain these photographs; they have plain linen covers bearing the embroidered legend "Eyes I Have Known," and guessing parties at which these photographs are exposed are the order of the day. One bold, bad young thing went somewhat further. She filled her book with photographs of mouths and passed it around for private circulation among her friends. The title she altered to "Lips I Have Known." Unfortunately, one day it fell into the hands of her chaperon and then, they say, dreadful things happened.

Another fad is to keep collections of the beginnings and endings of letters—you place them in a book in the order received. This is sometimes amusing when you have had friendships which were short and swift or letters which ranged from "Dear Miss Blank" to "Darling" and then by easy stages back again.

Perhaps the most foolish and daring fad was that of a summer girl I once heard about and as it points a terrible moral—and I am fond of morals—here it is:

This girl possessed what she called a "scalpbook." Only her intimate friends were allowed to see it. It contained a hair from the head of every man who had ever proposed to her. Whether she had obtained them by violence or cajolery no one ever knew; but, as she was a summer girl of several seasons, it is probable that it was by the latter method.

She was one day showing this book to a very dear friend when "the man" entered the room. I say "the man" because at the time there was no other man in the world for her. He had seen the book before she had a chance to put it away, and at the sight of the hairs neatly ticketed and arranged naturally his curiosity was aroused. The friend gigglingly explained.

When she had finished, there was a dead silence. It became so oppressive that she nervously got up and began to admire some bric-a-brac at the further end of the room.

Then the man leaned over the unfortunate originator of the fad and spoke in excessively cool, well bred tones. "I think," he said, "you will excuse me if I don't join the collection." And, picking up his hat and cane, he took his departure for good and all.

The worst of it is the girl declares he is the one man who wouldn't have gone into her book.

Royal Needlework.

The Duchess of Cleveland, who is now 81 years of age, has always been an accomplished needlewoman. In her boudoir at Raby castle there are numerous specimens of her beautiful work in the shape of chair coverings in cross stitch as fine as tapestry and suggestive of paintings. The old housekeeper who used to show parties of sightseers over Raby—one of the best preserved feudal castles in England—when asked if the duchess was musical, would reply indignantly, "Oh, dear, no! Her grace is a very industrious lady. She worked all these," pointing triumphantly to the embroideries and evidently considering music in any form the worst style of idling.
